RESPONSE TO MEDIA REPORTS

MELBOURNE: Crown Resorts Limited (ASX: CWN) (Crown) notes the media reports over recent days which make various allegations regarding Crown's business dealings.

Crown also notes that today the Federal Government has referred certain aspects of the allegations to the Australian Commission for Law Enforcement Integrity. Crown will fully co-operate in any investigation.

Crown takes its legal and regulatory responsibilities very seriously.

Crown has a comprehensive Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Program which is subject to regulatory supervision by AUSTRAC. Crown works closely with all of its regulatory agencies, including law enforcement, both state and federal. In this respect, Crown provides a range of information in a proactive manner consistent with its obligations, including reporting all transactions over $10,000 and suspect transactions of any value.

Crown has a robust process for vetting junket operators with whom it deals and undertakes regular ongoing reviews of these operators in the light of new or additional information that comes to its attention.

There is currently a class action being pursued in relation to the detentions of its employees in China in October 2016, which Crown is defending. Crown denies any allegation that it knowingly exposed its staff to the risk of detention or conviction in China.
