ILGA INQUIRY – EVIDENCE

MELBOURNE: Crown Resorts Limited (ASX: CWN) (Crown) refers to the evidence given by Crown's Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director, Mr Ken Barton, at the 24 September 2020 public hearing of the inquiry established by the NSW Independent Liquor and Gaming Authority, which is continuing.

Crown confirms the following information:

- Crown's VIP program play business in Melbourne and Perth has contributed approximately 7% of Crown's Normalised EBITDA over the last five years.
- Crown intends to progressively open the Crown Sydney Hotel Resort on or around 14 December 2020.
- Once fully operational, it is intended that gaming operations at Crown Sydney will comprise a total of 30 table games across 12 private gaming salons within the tower and 129 table games and 66 electronic table game terminals within two distinct gaming rooms within the podium, which also contain six gaming salons.

In addition, as part of Crown's review of its compliance and governance processes, the following changes were noted:

- Crown has suspended all activity with junket operators until 30 June 2021 while it undertakes a comprehensive review of its processes related to junket operators.
- A recruitment process has commenced for the newly created role of Head of Compliance and Financial Crimes which will report directly to the Board.
