RESPONSE TO COVID-19 – UPDATE – REVISED OPERATING CONDITIONS

MELBOURNE: Crown Resorts Limited (ASX: CWN) (Crown) announced today the following changes to Crown's business operations.

Following statements issued by the Commonwealth and relevant State Governments in relation to the closure of all non-essential businesses, the Crown Melbourne and Crown Perth entertainment complexes have ceased the following operations:

- gaming activities; and
- food & beverage, banqueting and conference facilities other than for the provision of takeaway meals or meal delivery services (where determined).

Hotel accommodation will continue to be provided in a reduced capacity.

Crown Aspinalls in the United Kingdom has also ceased operations.

Ken Barton, Crown's Chief Executive Officer, said:

"Covid-19 has created unprecedented challenges for Crown and many others in Australia. In accordance with the statements issued by the Commonwealth Government and the Direction of the Victorian Deputy Chief Health Officer, we have closed certain of Crown's facilities in Melbourne and Perth. Crown is a major employer in both Victoria and Western Australia with over 18,500 people working across our complexes. We continue to balance our responsibilities to our people in a manner which is in the interests of the health and safety of Crown employees, customers and the broader community."

Crown continues to assess all elements of the changes to Crown's business operations including the financial impact.
