ROYAL COMMISSION INTO CROWN MELBOURNE

The Victorian Government has today announced the establishment of a Royal Commission into Crown Melbourne Ltd's (Crown Melbourne) suitability to hold its Victorian casino licence, as well as the suitability of its associates, including Crown Resorts Ltd.

This Royal Commission responds to the serious findings of the New South Wales Independent Liquor and Gaming Authority (ILGA) inquiry.

Since receiving the ILGA report, the Government has taken advice about the most appropriate way to proceed in Victoria.

Establishing a Royal Commission will ensure the most appropriate access to information regarding Crown Melbourne's suitability to hold the casino licence given the Commission's powers to compel witnesses and documentation.

Raymond Finkelstein QC will serve as Commissioner and Chairperson of the Royal Commission and will hand down his recommendations by 1 August 2021.

Mr Finkelstein QC has served more than 40 years at the Victorian Bar and has been a Queen's Counsel since 1986. He was appointed a judge of the Federal Court in 1997 and held other notable appointments as Deputy President of the Copyright Tribunal of Australia and President of the Australian Competition Tribunal.

He retired as a judge of the Federal Court and President of the Competition Tribunal in 2011 and has returned to private practice at the Victorian Bar.

Later this year, the Government will legislate to enable the Victorian Gaming and Liquor Regulation Commission (VCGLR) to give effect to any findings of the Royal Commission.

The Government has also commenced work to establish an independent casino regulator and Minister for Consumer Affairs, Gaming and Liquor Regulation Melissa Horne has commissioned a review to advise on the necessary structural and governance arrangements.

The independent review will occur parallel with the Royal Commission and will also assess, among other things, requirements for regulation of money laundering and junket operations.

Quote attributable to Premier Daniel Andrews

"This is about making sure that those who hold a casino licence in Victoria uphold the highest standards of probity and integrity – and that they're accountable for their actions."

Quotes attributable to Minister for Consumer Affairs, Gaming and Liquor Regulation Melissa Horne

"The reports from New South Wales' ILGA Inquiry were incredibly concerning, which is why we're establishing a Royal Commission to get the answers we need about Crown Melbourne."

"The Royal Commission will establish the facts and the Government and the VCGLR will take any necessary action at the conclusion of the investigation. We will not tolerate illegal behaviour in our gaming industry."

No. S 83 Monday 22 February 2021
By Authority of Victorian Government Printer

ELIZABETH THE SECOND, BY THE GRACE OF GOD
QUEEN OF AUSTRALIA AND HER OTHER REALMS AND TERRITORIES, HEAD OF THE COMMONWEALTH:

I, the Honourable Linda Dessau AC, the Governor of Victoria, with the advice of the Premier, under section 5 of the Inquiries Act 2014 and all other enabling powers, appoint you Roman (Ray) Finkelstein AO QC as Commissioner and Chairperson to constitute a Royal Commission to inquire into and report on the matters specified in the terms of reference below.

I. BACKGROUND

1. Crown Melbourne Limited (Crown Melbourne) operates the Melbourne Casino under a licence granted under and subject to the provisions of the Casino Control Act 1991 (Casino Control Act) on 19 November 1993. Crown Melbourne is the casino operator under the Casino Control Act and is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Crown Resorts Ltd (Crown Resorts).
2. The aims of the system for the licensing, supervision and control of casinos established under the Casino Control Act include:
 - a. ensuring that the management and operation of casinos remains free from criminal influence or exploitation;
 - b. ensuring that gaming in casinos is conducted honestly; and
 - c. promoting tourism, employment, and economic development generally in the State.
3. Crown Resorts' separate wholly-owned subsidiary, Crown Sydney Gaming Pty Ltd (Crown Sydney), holds a restricted gaming licence in New South Wales.
4. On 1 February 2021, an inquiry conducted by the Hon. Patricia Bergin SC for the New South Wales Independent Liquor and Gaming Authority (Bergin Inquiry), concluded that Crown Sydney was not a suitable person to continue to give effect to the Barangaroo restricted gaming licence and that Crown Resorts was not a suitable person to be a close associate of the person holding that restricted gaming licence.
5. The Bergin Inquiry also found, among other things, that Crown Resorts:
 - a. facilitated money laundering through the Southbank and Riverbank accounts unchecked and unchanged in the face of warnings from its bankers;
 - b. disregarded the welfare of its China-based staff putting them at risk of detention by pursuing an aggressive sales policy and failing to escalate risks through the appropriate corporate risk management structures; and
 - c. entered into or continued commercial relationships with junket operators who had links to Triads and other organised crime groups.
6. Some of the conduct canvassed by the Bergin Inquiry related to the Melbourne Casino operated by Crown Melbourne and other conduct related to the casino in Perth operated by Burswood Ltd (which is also a subsidiary of Crown Resorts).
7. Other law enforcement agencies, including the AUSTRAC, have considered or are considering the conduct of Crown Resorts and/or Crown Melbourne, including allegations of money laundering.
8. The Minister for Consumer Affairs, Gaming and Liquor intends to establish a review into Victoria's casino regulatory framework (Regulatory Review). It is intended that the Regulatory Review will run concurrently with the Royal Commission.

 - D. Whether it is in the public interest for Crown Melbourne to continue to hold the casino licence in Victoria.
 - E. If you consider that Crown Melbourne is not a suitable person, or that it is not in the public interest for Crown Melbourne to hold the casino licence in Victoria, what action (if any) would be required for Crown Melbourne to become a suitable person, or for it to be in the public interest for Crown Melbourne to continue to hold the casino licence in Victoria.
 - F. Whether Crown Resorts is a Suitable Associate of Crown Melbourne.
 - G. If you consider that Crown Resorts is not a Suitable Associate of Crown Melbourne, what action (if any) would be required for Crown Resorts to become a Suitable Associate of Crown Melbourne.
