FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
5 March 2021

WESTERN AUSTRALIAN ROYAL COMMISSION

MELBOURNE: Crown Resorts Limited (ASX: CWN) (Crown) refers to its announcement of 17 February 2021 regarding the Gaming and Wagering Commission of Western Australia (WA Commission) inquiry under the Casino Control Act 1984 (WA) (WA Inquiry).

Crown has today been informed that the WA Inquiry will be held as a royal commission (WA Royal Commission). The WA Royal Commission will examine the suitability of Crown Perth to continue holding a casino gaming licence in Western Australia, Western Australia's regulatory framework and any matters that may enhance the WA Commission's future capability and effectiveness.

Neville Owen AO, Lindy Jenkins and Colin Murphy have been appointed as Commissioners in the WA Royal Commission.

The WA Royal Commission is expected to deliver an interim report in relation to the regulatory framework by 30 June 2021 and a final report with findings and recommendations by 14 November 2021.

A copy of a media statement issued by the WA Racing and Gaming Minister is available at: <https://www.mediastatements.wa.gov.au/Pages/McGowan/2021/03/Royal-Commission-to-be-held-into-Crown-Perths-suitability-to-hold-licence.aspx>.

Crown will fully co-operate in relation to the WA Royal Commission.

Helen Coonan, Crown's Executive Chairman, said:

"The WA Royal Commission will provide an opportunity for Crown to detail the reforms and changes to our business to deliver the highest standards of governance and compliance, and an organisational culture that meets community expectations."
