UPDATE ON BERGIN REPORT

The NSW Independent Liquor & Gaming Authority will receive the final report of the Bergin Inquiry into the suitability of Crown Resorts to hold the licence for Sydney's Barangaroo casino on Monday 1 February 2021.

The Authority's board will then consider the report, which is expected to be publicly released within the next two weeks.

Authority chair Philip Crawford said no date for the release of the report had been finally determined.

Media will be given prior notice of the release date once this is confirmed.
