

CROWN SYDNEY WINS BEST CONFERENCE & EVENTS VENUE 2026

17 July, 2026: Crown Sydney has been recognised at the 2026 Accommodation Australia NSW Awards for Excellence, taking home Best Conference & Events Venue and named a finalist across five categories.

The win recognises Crown Sydney's world-class events offering, from intimate private celebrations to large-scale corporate functions, supported by exceptional dining, service and hotel experiences.

Crown Sydney's events offering continues to attract a diverse range of high-profile moments, from hosting the annual Australian Economic Outlook in the Pearl Ballroom attended by the Prime Minister and business and policy leaders, to Wedded World, Australia's most luxurious wedding expo, alongside countless private celebrations, corporate functions and milestone events.

Crown Sydney Chief Executive Officer Ken Janssen said the recognition was a proud moment for the team.

"This award is a wonderful acknowledgement of the passion, care and professionalism our teams bring to every guest experience and events big and small," Mr Janssen said.

"From our events specialists and culinary teams to hotel operations and front-of-house, this recognition reflects the collective effort of our people across Crown Sydney."

"We are incredibly proud to be recognised among the best in NSW accommodation and hospitality, and grateful to our guests, the many local suppliers who work alongside us and provide their exceptional produce, and our event partners for their continued support."

The Accommodation Australia NSW Awards for Excellence are considered the most prestigious accolades for the hospitality and tourism sector in NSW, recognising achievement across the industry. Crown Sydney was also recognised as a finalist in categories spanning luxury accommodation, dining, wellness and rooftop experiences, including Epicurean, CirQ and Crown Spa.
