3 March 2026: The hottest tickets are now on sale for two very exclusive performances by Melanie C, aka Sporty Spice, at Crown Sydney's opulent Presidential Villa.

Melanie C is headlining this year's Suite Sessions at Crown Sydney, offering guests the unique opportunity to see her live and up close in the luxurious surrounds of the sky-high Villa on Level 88, with its panoramic views of Sydney Harbour.

A limited number of guests will dine on Nobu canapes and cocktails and find out more about the former Spice Girl in a Q&A session. Ten lucky fans will also have a personal meet-and-greet with her, ahead of each show on 12 March.

Suite Sessions was a huge hit when it launched last year with a solo show by Luke Hemmings from 5 Seconds of Summer. Performances are held in the Presidential Villa where stars like Taylor Swift, Drake and Oprah Winfrey stay when they're in town.

The Spice Girls sold more than 100-million albums worldwide and are the best-selling female band of all-time. Now, a quarter of a century after the stars went their separate ways, Melanie C is set to delight fans with an acoustic set that will include some Spice Girls favourites.

Melanie C said: "I'm so excited to perform in such a unique setting as the Crown Sydney Presidential Villa. Having the chance to perform acoustically in a beautiful, intimate setting is such a special way to connect with fans and share some of my favourite songs over the years."

For another fun experience at Crown Sydney this month, grab your girlfriends for a Wannabe High-Tea at Teahouse inspired by the British pop group. It will feature luxe bites, Spice Girls-themed cocktails and champagne, with three levels of decadence available from midday until 3pm on 13-15 & 20-22 March.

If that sounds like what you really, really want, head to the Crown Sydney website for more details on tickets: Suite Sessions
