5 October 2026: One of the world's biggest rock bands is coming to Crown Melbourne's newest entertainment venue. For one unforgettable evening, Foo Fighters will play an exclusive and intimate show at Crown LIVE on 16 November, bringing their stadium-filling sound and energy to a venue designed for unforgettable up-close moments.

Known for selling out and headlining the world's biggest venues and festivals, Foo Fighters will wrap up the Melbourne leg of their 'Take Cover' Australian Tour with one final, extraordinary show – performing for just 1,250 lucky fans in an historic one-night-only event.

Access to highly sought-after tickets will be offered to the public and Crown Rewards members, who can register their interest now at <https://www.crownmelbourne.com.au/foofighters>. Following the one-week registration period, successful entrants will be selected via demand allocation and invited to secure tickets through Ticketmaster.

Crown Melbourne CEO, Ed Domingo, said bringing a band of Foo Fighters' stature to Crown LIVE captures the venue's ambition to deliver ground-breaking entertainment experiences that can't be found anywhere else.

"Foo Fighters are renowned for filling stadiums across the globe, so the opportunity to see them up close in such an intimate venue as Crown LIVE is going to be a once-in-a-lifetime experience," Mr Domingo said.

"We believe the measure of a great venue isn't the size of the crowd it can hold, but the calibre of experience it can create for the people in the room. This is exactly the kind of event Crown LIVE was designed to deliver."

Foo Fighters' Dave Grohl said the band is excited by the opportunity to perform in such a unique setting.

"There's something electric about stripping it all back and getting closer to the fans. We play some of the biggest venues in the world, so the chance to play a club show and share that energy packed into smaller spaces with sweat dripping off the ceiling and walls is something that always excites us."

Beyond Foo Fighters, Crown LIVE will deliver an entertainment lineup unlike any other Australian venue. The growing calendar spans globally recognised comedy, music, Broadway musicals and Vegas-style residencies, with Russell Peters, Ashanti, Elf The Musical, The Choir of Man and 'A Special Evening with Christian Horner' all set to take the stage. From arena-filling music icons and Grammy Award winners to Broadway favourites, feel-good theatre shows and internationally acclaimed live productions, the breadth of programming reflects Crown LIVE's ability to deliver premium entertainment for every audience.

The opening of Crown LIVE follows an exciting lineup of announcements as part of Crown Melbourne's $200 million transformation, reshaping the Southbank precinct into the ultimate next-generation destination for entertainment, dining and nightlife. With Crown LIVE sitting alongside incoming global dining names including Mott 32 and Victor Churchill, plus high-energy concepts such as Amaya Modern Mexican and Barbershop Cuts & Cocktails, Crown is bringing together world-class food, live performance, bars and late-night experiences under one roof – giving guests more choice, more reasons to visit, and more ways to shape their night once it starts at Crown.

Registrations open today at <https://www.crownmelbourne.com.au/foofighters> and close 12 October 2026. Successful applicants will be notified on 21 October 2026.

ABOUT CROWN MELBOURNE

Crown has been an iconic Melbourne landmark since 1994, transforming the Southbank precinct into one of Australia's most recognised and visited destinations. Nestled along the Yarra River, Crown is Melbourne's only integrated resort, offering a world class experience that attracts more than 26 million visitors annually.

Crown Melbourne's waterfront location boasts unrivalled luxury accommodation, with over 1,600 exquisitely appointed rooms across Crown Towers, Crown Metropol and Crown Promenade. Guests enjoy access to Victoria's best indoor hotel swimming pools, the award-winning Crown Spa and an exclusive retail precinct featuring designer brands and prestigious luxury outlets.

Home to an exceptional array of award-winning restaurants, including Nobu and Rockpool, alongside bars, cafes and clubs, Crown is Melbourne's ultimate entertainment destination with venues for every occasion. Marmont is the latest addition to the dining offering, with Victor Churchill and Mott 32 set to open exquisite new restaurants overlooking the Yarra in 2027.

Crown Live is Melbourne's newest premium entertainment venue. An intimate 1,250-seat theatre, it comes alive with everything from world-class musicals and family favourites to comedy and unforgettable concert experiences. Designed for flexibility and impact, the space effortlessly transforms to suit every performance, creating an electric atmosphere for every audience. Featuring a balcony overlooking the Yarra, perfect for pre-show drinks and socialising, Crown Live is set within the energy of Crown Melbourne's unrivalled collection of restaurants, bars and late-night experiences. It turns every show into a complete night out in the heart of the city.

Crown Palladium Ballroom remains Australia's premiere major events destination, hosting prestigious awards and celebrations. This compliments a combined 7,350 square metres of versatile space offered by the Crown Conference Centre.

The 24-hour casino at Crown Melbourne features 540 gaming tables and over 2,600 electronic gaming machines, providing guests a wide variety of entertainment options all under the one roof.

Crown Melbourne is the state's largest single-site private employer and the largest employer of hospitality staff. The resort plays a key role in driving Melbourne's tourism sector, contributing $1.9 billion to the local economy each year. For more than a decade, the Crown Resorts Foundation has invested over $20 million in Victorian community organisations and initiatives, helping strengthen communities across the state.
