CROWN RESORTS STATEMENT ON ENFORCEABLE UNDERTAKING WITH THE FAIR WORK OMBUDSMAN

23 June 2023: Crown has entered an enforceable undertaking with the Fair Work Ombudsman after rectifying legacy award interpretation and record keeping issues for approximately 200 employees.

Crown takes its obligations as an employer seriously and self-reported to the Fair Work Ombudsman in 2020 following a comprehensive payroll review.

Crown has apologised and made backpayments to those impacted by the issue.

Since the errors were identified, Crown continues to focus on reviewing its payroll processes and is investing in upgrading its workforce management systems and strengthening its compliance framework.

As part of the Enforceable Undertaking signed with the Fair Work Ombudsman, Crown will make a contrition payment and has committed to independent audits for the next three years to ensure ongoing compliance.
